BIRTHDAYS: None Today

1. There will not be a Green Team meeting this week because of conferences. Please stop in next week, we will be making energy houses and preparing for the carnival.
2. The GMS Bully Prevention Club will meet today in Mrs. Pedersen's office for a very important activities planning meeting. 8th graders will meet during 8th grade lunch period and 7th grade will meet during 7th grade lunch period. If you have any questions see Mrs. Pedersen. Hope to see you there.
3. Attention Gurrie!!! Tomorrow is Battle of the Books. Cheer on your fellow readers and support our teams. Participants and coaches remember to wear your t-shirts and make final preparations. INVITE your parents. We would love a full house! See you all tomorrow after 6th period in the small gym!! Any questions, see Mrs. Sutsser.
4. The wrestling team hosted their final home meet of the season and walked away with a dominant win over Brookwood Middle School. The final score was 59-18 and the team seems to be peaking at the right time as regionals are just around the corner. Outstanding performance came from Jackson Garelli, Daniel Lee, Callum Rogers, Chrissy Thorpe, Luka Tomich, Cole Lagowski, Victor Herejon. The season is coming to a close and the wrestlers are seeing that the hard work they have put into the season is paying off. Good luck to all of the wrestlers these next couple of weeks and we hope to see you advance to the state tournament!"
5. Yesterday the girls took on Park Red in volleyball. 7th grade battled back and forth against the the Park Patriots. Big plays in the first set from Lily Prendergast helped the Tigers win a first set. In the second set dominant serving from Hannah Eskra and Allyssa Wong got the Tigers their first win of the season.

8th grade played Park, too. The Tigers came out roaring and jumped to a commanding lead while cruising to a first set victory. Anna Westrick nailed serve after serve to help notch the win. In the second set, Gurrie continued to prove to be too much. Setting a strong net presence was Ella Rovai and Grace Kernagis while Maggie Kernagis made some awesome passes too. 8th grade now improves to 2-0.
