1. Math Olympiad second practice will take place after school today in room A208. If you cannot attend please see Miss Zalewska before school for more details.
2. Attention students: Graduation Retakes are this Thursday, February 28th.
3. There is an EMM Meeting Tuesday after school for students who want to make dinner at Lincoln Park Community Shelter on Friday, March 8th. This is a super fun service project so make sure you attend the meeting Tuesday after school to get information and permission slip. The meeting will be in Mrs. Kulaga's room Tuesday at 3:15pm.
4. As you know, the Gurrie Winter Raffle to raise money for new library furniture started last Friday. We have over 100 prizes to raffle off, including homework passes, restaurant gift cards and free lunches from teachers. CONGRATS to Colin Cartwright, who won the 1st grand prize. Because he bought raffle tickets at lunch on Friday, he won a free pizza party for his advisory, Eigel/Olsen. Do you want a chance to win? Ask family for donations, and for every $5 you bring in, earn a raffle ticket. There are two more weeks of raffles!
5. Reminder to all underwater robotics stem club members we will meet today to make changes to your ROV. Only 2 weeks left until the intermural competition! Mrs. Halper will stay until 5 and you should stay as long as your team needs to make changes before our pool trip on Thursday. See Mrs. Halper if you have any questions.
6. The volleyball teams hosted Washington yesterday. 7th grade dominated in two sets to advance to 4 and 1. The beast 8th graders also took their 4th dub with aggressive serves from Allyssa "The Ace" Wong, sneaky tips by tip master Heskra, surprise attacks by Nikki "Nighttime Savage" Avizius, Sara "The Surprise Setter" setting up mad attacks by Lillian "Laser Beam" Prendergast, Emma "The Eagle" Kallal making sure to cover the court. Amazing plays from the rest of the team to rally in games two and three, with good juju coming from Maddie Gonzales, Grace Sneed, and Piper Oldenburg. Both teams resume playing today at Highlands.
