BIRTHDAYS: Tyler Kovel

1. Yesterday the girls' volleyball went to Westchester to take on the Warriors. 7th grade won in two sets, taking their 7th dub on the season.

8th grade battled hard winning both sets. The Tigers started out hot with a ten point serving streak from Hannah Eskra, amazing setting from Nikki Nighttime Savage Avizius, blocks by Lillian the Laser Beam Prendergast and clutch digs from Sister Sophia Dike to keep play moving in the first. Front row attacks by Grace the savior Sneed and Emma Kallal and a 5 point serving streak from Margot Pooler The Ruler helped the girls close out their 6th win. Tigers will host Highlands on Tuesday the 12th for the last home game of the season. Come make some noise at the "Pack the Place Pink Out." Bring your team spirit and wear as much pink as you can handle.

2. Gooooalll! Did you miss the information meeting for soccer but still interested in joining? Stop by coach halpers room for the information packet that has all waivers needed to participate. Remember to everyone that all waivers need to be on file before our first practice after spring break. See the coaches if you have any questions.
