4. Yesterday the girls took on Highlands. 7th grade battled back and forth and went into halftime tied 8 to 8. The girls were led by key defensive plays by Emma Kallal. The Tigers dialed up an aggressive offensive pace to go up 14-8 in the 3rd quarter thanks to the sharpshooting from Natalia Gonzalez and Lily Prendergast. A key defensive stop at the end of the game by Hannah Eskra ensured the Tigers prevailed with the key win 21-19.

The 8th grade game had lots of offensive firepower with huge baskets from Leslie Mendoza and Megan Gardner. The zone defense of the Tigers slowed down Highlands at times but the Hornets proved to be too much as 8th grade lost.
